

Cobbler pleads guilty to damaging woman's car, fined RM3,000

MIRI: The Magistrates' Court here yesterday fined a cobbler RM3,000 in default eight months in jail for damaging a car belonging to a woman.

Magistrate Ashok Linggam convicted Jasni Abdullah, 46, of Kampung Pusil in Bakam on his own guilty plea to a charge framed under Section 426 of the Penal Code.

The Section carries a prison term which may extend to five years or a fine, or both, upon conviction. Jasni committed the offence along the roadside of Wireless Walk here at around 7.30pm on Apr 9, 2025.

According to the case facts, the accused used a wooden stick to smash the left front signal light, as well as hit the rear of the car and left door, causing about RM300 in damage.

Prosecuting the case was Insp Mudzilawati Abdul Rahman.
