

Civil servant charged with injuring dad with PVC pipe

KUCHING: A man attached to a federal enforcement department claimed trial in the Sessions Court here yesterday to a charge of causing hurt to his 52-year-old father with a polyvinyl chloride (PVC) pipe.

The 29-year-old accused pleaded not guilty before Judge Iris Awen Jon to a charge under Section 324 of the Penal Code read together with Section 326A of the same Code.

He allegedly committed the offence within the compound of a house along Jalan Merdeka,

Petra Jaya at about noon on June 3, 2026.

It is understood that the incident stemmed from the accused's dissatisfaction with his father over the latter's refusal to assist in reconnecting electricity and water supplies to the accused's new residence.

The court denied the accused bail and ordered him to engage a lawyer ahead of pre-trial case management on July 8.

Deputy public prosecutor Chuah Kai Sheng appeared for the prosecution.
