Man pleads guilty to drug abuse, jailed 12 months

KUCHING: The Magistrates' Court here yesterday sentenced a man to 12 months' imprisonment for abusing amphetamine and methamphetamine.

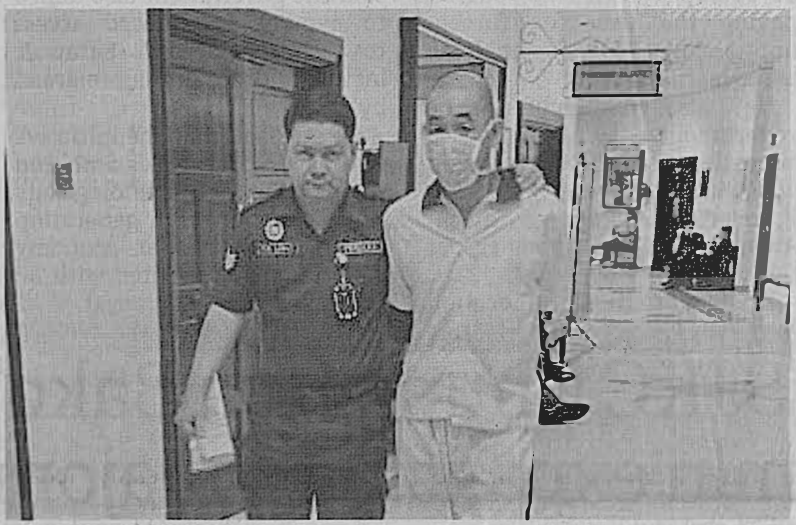

Senior assistant registrar DK Afiqah Alya AK Johari @ PG Johari also ordered Jackson Ong Wei Hang, 44, to undergo supervision for three years upon the completion of his custodial sentence.

Ong had earlier pleaded guilty to a charge under Section 15(1)(a) of the Dangerous Drugs Act 1952, punishable under Section 15(1) of the same Act, which provides for a fine not exceeding RM5,000 or imprisonment for up to two years, upon conviction.

The Section also requires offenders to undergo supervision for a period of not less than two years and not more than three years.

The accused was tested positive for the two drugs at the Kuching Narcotics Criminal Investigation Division office at about 5.45pm on Oct 24, 2026.

In the same courtroom, a 23-year-old man was fined RM3,500 in default three months' jail after pleading guilty to a charge of engaging in online gambling in public.

Ong is led away after sentencing.

Aidit Hikhmal Andi Abdullah Hartoyo was charged under Section 7(2) of the Common Gaming Houses Act 1953 with committing the offence at an eatery along Jalan Gold Jade, Sin Sin Park here at about 10.30am on Nov 14, 2026.

The Section provides for a fine not exceeding RM5,000 or up to six months' jail, or both, upon conviction.

According to the facts of the case, a police team on an 'Ops Dadu' operation conducted a 15-minute surveillance of the eatery before raiding the premises.

Several customers fled but police managed to detain Aidit, who was seated at a table outside engrossed in an online gambling game using his mobile phone.

Police seized the mobile phone and a piece of paper containing an identification number and password.

Insp Siti Radhiah Abdul Rahman prosecuted both cases, while the two accused were unrepresented by counsel.
