

Man jailed two months for formula milk theft

SIBU: The Magistrates' Court here on Monday sentenced a man to two months' imprisonment for stealing two boxes of formula milk from a supermarket.

Magistrate Romario Jonoï convicted Bunyau Nanum, 36, of Sungai Aup on his own guilty plea to a charge under Section 380 of the Penal Code.

The Section provides for an imprisonment term of up to 10 years and a fine, upon conviction.

The offence took place at Jalan Teng Chin Hua here at around 10.40am on April 9.

According to facts of the case, the supermarket supervisor suspected Bunyau of theft and detained him. Upon inspection in the management office, two boxes of formula milk valued at RM110.90 were discovered inside his backpack.

Bunyau claimed that the formula milk was for his own consumption.
